What services are operating?
Food Bank Operating
Increase services of food box delivery for those without transportation. Food boxes can be delivered.

Charity Services for clothing and household items and some limited support services.

Homeless Grab and Go Lunches available Sunday -Thursday Methodist Church Parking Lot 610 2nd ave N. Parking Lot. Available beginning 11:30 am until gone each scheduled day. We will also have feminine hygiene products, socks and limited clothing available at lunch for distribution. Social support and Census will be available on site.

What services are suspended and what are your limitations?
We have suspended Drop In Center
We do not have suspended services at the foodbank, however food and clothing vouchers are now being processed over the phone. We are short volunteers and are at a breaking point. Food donations have decreased from grocery stores and demand has increased.

What need do you have for community volunteers if any?
We have a need for drivers to drop off food boxes, drivers to pick up food, and assistance in warehouse and food processing on foodbank days. We have a need for people who can cook in our donated commercial kitchen to make grab and go lunches for homeless.
